2. Bid Opening

- 2.1. The bid received will be opened at the “Deadline of Submission Time” mentioned above and the highest price will be considered as the starting price of the auction.
- 2.2. The Bank reserves the right to terminate this auction at any time before notification to the highest bidder.
- 2.3. The Bank is at its discretion to accept offers, lower than the starting bidding price of this notice.
- 2.4. After initial bids are opened, the highest bid price will be published on the Bank’s Noticeboard and Website, and such price shall be the starting price for auction.
- 2.5. The auction will be opened for 05 (five) consecutive working days from the date that it is announced, and the bank will continuously keep publishing the highest price received on its Noticeboard or Website for further offers till the action is closed on the very 5th day where it will be awarded to the highest bidder.
- 2.6. If no other higher auction bid is submitted, the bid shall then be closed at 2:00 pm on the fifth day.
- 2.7. In case there are several successful auction bidders quoting similar highest price, the Bank may opt for a “on the spot” down payments. Accordingly, any of the bidders who come up first with an initial payment of 10% of cleared funds of the bided price within 48 hours will have priority and will be given plus five (5) working days, or a timeframe as may be reasonably decided and agreed by the Bank to settle the remaining 90%.
- 2.8. In case the remaining 90% is not settled within the time frame as mentioned above, or if the bidder withdraws or fail to support the bid, 100% of the down payment made will be forfeited
- 2.9. It is to be noted that making the down payment above does not mean that the bid has been successful, as the Bank reserves the right to allocate the bid according to its own criteria, subject to an Award Notice being issued, or to cancel the auction at any time before awarding even to the highest successful bidder.

3. Award Notice and Payment

- 3.1. The Bank will issue a formal Award Notice, duly signed by its officer(s), with its stamp affixed thereon to the successful bidder, for payment.
- 3.2. The highest bidder (in case that there is no bid of similar value) will need to effect payment in full by RTGS or Bank Cheque within 5 working days, or a reasonable timeframe as may be decided and agreed by the Bank, and this before the Bank’s Completion of Business hours.
- 3.3. If the successful (highest in case we do not choose the highest) bidder fails to make the payment during the period as mentioned above, the Award Notice will lapse and will be cancelled automatically, and the Bank reserves the right to award the bid to the next highest/ or equivalent bidder and without carrying a further bid.

4. Other terms

- 4.1. The successful bidder shall bear all charges for conveyance, stamp duty, registration, sale certificate, any other costs associated with the transfer of ownership, government taxes and statutory dues applicable on the sale of the Property, and any and all existing and future charges relating to the Property.
- 4.2. The particulars specified in the Description of Property have been stated to the best of information obtained by the Bank and the Bank will not be responsible for any error, misstatement or omission.
- 4.3. If the borrower/guarantor(s) finally pays the amount due to the Bank in full before the Award Notice, no sale will be conducted.
- 4.4. The Bank has the absolute right and discretion to accept or reject any bid or adjourn the process herein described/postpone/cancel the sale or add/delete/change any of the terms and conditions of this auction/sale at any time without prior notice to the owner, bidder, public etc. and without assigning any reason thereof
- 4.5. The bidders should make discreet enquiry as regards to any claim, charges/ encumbrances on the Property, of any authority, besides the Bank’s charges and should satisfy themselves about the title, extent, quality and quantity of the Property before submitting their bid.
- 4.6. The Bank will not be responsible for any third-party claims, rights or any dues and that the bidder is advised to conduct its own due diligence relating to the asset being auctioned.
- 4.7. The Bank will not be held responsible for any shortcomings, malfunctioning or whatever inconsistencies of the property being sold.
- 4.8. The bids cannot be withdrawn or cancelled once submitted.

- 4.9. The registration fees and other costs associated with the transfer of the ownership of the asset have to be borne by the successful bidder.
  - 4.10. Proceeds from the sale shall be applied against all the facilities attached to the mortgage and any excess will be paid back to the owner of the property after deducting all the expenses related to the sale such as property tax, legal fee and valuation fee.
